CREATIVE ARTS

HIDDEN HINGE MINI BOOK with MARJI $36 includes Materials Kit

In this four-hour class, learn the "hidden hinge" book making technique that allows you to create depth to a book without it bursting at the seams! The new range of Prima "The Archivist" 6 x 6 papers have been used to create a vintage inspired mini hard covered book, embellished with flowers, charms, cut out tags and more. Learn how to use Walnut Crystals and Rusting Powder to create aged cogs and keys. Remember the "wow" factor when you first saw gold embossing powder at work? We'll take a trip down wow lane and re-visit this technique that has been used with the latest Kaiser die cuts. This completed small book only measures 7cm x 8.5cm, but it packs a punch with technique and 16 mini pages. Once you've learned the hidden hinge technique, you can easily adapt it for any size book that you'd like to make. A must to learn.

Guest Teacher - Trina McClune

Just to give you a bit of background on who I am, I have been working with Prima Marketing for several years now. The first 2 years on their highly sought after Design Team, then following that time, the last 3 years as a Prima endorsed educator.

During my scrapbooking journey, I've been involved with many different magazines, companies, challenge sites etc. Always staying true to my love of scrapbooking and passion and desire to share this with others.

During my classes, I always give tons of tips, techniques and ideas that can be used over and over again in other products the students will do in the future.

I like to teach a variety of classes. Probably my most popular classes are those where the students go away with 2 or more layouts. These classes are done in 3 hours and the students will go away with 2 layouts (twice the fun). This class is very technique based.

Trina will be teaching 2 classes exclusive to Bella Paperie on Saturday June 13th.

9am – 12noon Twice the Fun. $58 includes Materials Kit

Probably my most popular classes are those where the students go away with 2 or more layouts. These classes are done in 3 hours
The main product I've used in the layouts are from Prima's Bedtime Stories range (although they are not 'baby' layouts).

I've used Bo-Bunny's gorgeous Garden Journal range for the mini album.

Images of projects will soon be available on the blog

Bring list for the students: Standard tool kit, foam tape

Twice the fun Layout class: craft knife, cutting mat, a 6x4 photo that can be cut into a circle (this can be added later)

Pockets galore Mini album class optional: corner rounder, scorer (such as Martha Stewart Scorpal), Envelope maker, your favourite border punch. There will be some of these items available to share but please bring them if you have any.
